Under the leadership of industry veteran Fred Braselton, and for the second year in a row, Braselton Homes has been named to the prestigious “TOP 200” list of Homebuilders, as compiled by Builder Magazine. The United States has over 35,000 construction companies, and each year Builder Magazine, creates the lists of the countries largest homebuilders, including the “Top 100”, and the “Next 100”.

As the only area homebuilder listed, Braselton Homes is very pleased with its ranking as the 164th largest homebuilder in the United States. “We work very hard for our customers, and have been greatly blessed” says Executive Vice President, Bart Braselton. “In two of the worst years our country has ever seen in the homebuilding industry, we are very humbled to be named both years (2008 and 2009) to this honor.”

The Braselton family has been in the Construction business in the Corpus Christi Area Since 1945, and has built homes for thousands of families around the Coastal Bend. Bart Braselton is the third generation of this Corpus Christi homebuilding family.
